Aircraft Carrier, The New 548
Aircraft Carrying Mail Steamer, Proposed 426
Aluminum and Aluminum Alloys for Use on Board Ship, by E. M. Hewlett and D. Basch 675
Asheville, U. S. S., Description and Official Trials, by H. G. Donald, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 219
Association Notes 213, 448, 600, 749
Basch, D. (and E. M. Hewlett), Aluminum and Aluminum Alloys for Use on Board Ship 675
Bean, Carlos, Commander, U. S. N., Notes on Inspection and Manufacture of Steel Castings for Naval Ships 137
Bleeder Turbine as a Coal Conservator 161
Boiler (German Steam) Designed for 850-pound Pressure 714
Boilers, High Pressure Steam 711
Boiler, Swedish, Operates at Pressure of 1,500 Pounds 418
Boiler, 1,200-pound Pressure, for Calumet Station 580
Calumet Station to Have 1,200-pound Boiler 580
Carbon Dioxide versus Ammonia as a Refrigerant 403
Charlton, A. M., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. Navy, (with C. A. Jones, Commander, U. S. N.), Low Pressure Vacuum Evaporators (Multiple Effect Film Type) 329
Charlton, A. M., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., Electric Drive on Battleships 253
Charlton, A. M., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. (with C. A. Jones, Commander, U. S. N.), Additional Notes on Low Pressure Evaporators 539
Chronograph, Langley, by G. B. Vroom, Lieutenant Commander U. S. N. 375
Condenser Tube Corrosion 730
Condenser Tubes, Entrance Nozzle for 731
Condenser Tubes, the Rapid Corrosion of 732
Conversion of Electrical Power 396
Cox, O. L., Commander, U. S. N., Vacuum 701
Cox, O. L., Commander, U. S. N., Ventilation of Ships, with Special Consideration to Air Supply of Fire-Rooms, (Translation and rewriting of paper of Julius Lévai) 114
Critical Speeds, A Note On 153
Densmore, C. W., Commander U. S. N., U. S. S. Richmond, Description and Official Trials 451

Diesel Engine, The Compound 553
Diesel Engines on United States Battleship 437
Diesel Engine, Marine, Sulzer, Largest 413
Diesel, Double Acting, for New Liner 412
Displacement, The Effect of Changes of, On Destroyer Performance. by P. B. Dungan, Captain, U. S. N. 693
Donald, H. G., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., Description and Trials of U. S. S. Asheville 219
Double-Acting Engine, A 12,000 B.H.P. 709
Dungan, P. B., Captain, U. S. N., the Effect of Changes of Displacement on Destroyer Performance 693
Duralumin, Practical Heat Treatment of 561
Edwards, John R., Rear Admiral, U. S. N., Obituary 208
Electric Drive on Battleships, by A. M. Charlton, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 253
Engines, Comparative Details of Various Types of 710
Evaporators, Low Pressure, Additional Notes on, by C. A. Jones, Commander, U. S. N., and A. M. Charlton, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 539
Evaporators, Low Pressure Vacuum (Multiple Effect Film Type), by C. A. Jones, Commander, U. S. N., and A. M. Charlton, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 329
Exhaust Gases of Oil-Engine, Utilization of 192
Fatigue of Metals, New Information on the 739
Feed Heating for High Thermal Efficiency 168
Feed Heating for High Thermal Efficiency 381
Feed Water, Boiler, Deaeration of 569
Feed Water, The Automatic Control of 723
Filter, Stream-Line 549
Filters, Stream Line, at the Olympia Exhibition 729
Fouling of Ships' Bottoms and the Effect on Fuel Consumption, Notes on, by Henry Williams, Captain (CC), U. S. N. 357
Galvin, Gerald M., Solving the Refractories Problem of the Navy 146
Gas Engine, Compound, What Can We Expect from 185
Gillette, C. S., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., Navy Switchboard Instruments 603
Gill Shrouded Propeller, The 727
Hersey, Mayo Dyer, Problems of Lubrication Research 648
Hewlett, E. M. (and D. Basch), Aluminum and Aluminum Alloys for Use on Board Ship 675
High Pressures and Temperatures, Commercial Economy of 167
High Superheat and High Pressure, Commercial Economy of 573
Howden-Ljungström Air Preheater, Tests of 568
Hydraulically Propelled Motor Craft 719

Jones, C. A., Commander, U. S. N., (with A. M. Charlton, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N.), Additional Notes on Low Pressure Evaporators 539
Jones, C. A., Commander, U. S. N., Concentration Salinity Indicators for Measurement of Surface Condenser Leakage and Distilling Plant Operation 526
Jones, C. A., Commander, U. S. N., (with A. M. Charlton, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N.), Low Pressure Vacuum Evaporators (Multiple Effect Film Type) 329
Keller, Harold R., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., U. S. S. Langley, Our First Aircraft Carrier 451
Langley, U. S. S., Our First Aircraft Carrier, by Harold R. Keller, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 500
Leadizing Process for Piping and Steel Plates, New 410
Lévai, Julius, Ing. Ventilation of Ships, with Special Consideration to Air Supply of Fire-rooms (Translated and Re-written by O. L. Cox, Commander, U. S. N.) 114
Liberty Engine, Question as to Obsolescence 432
Lubrication, Recent Researches on 175
Lubrication Research, Problems of, by Mayo Dyer Hersey 648
Maryland, U. S. S., Description and Official Trials, by F. T. Van Auken, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 1
Monel Metal, The Fatigue Limit and Proportionality of 745
Motors, Variable-Speed, Alternating-Current, without Commutators 438
Obituary, John R. Edwards, Rear Admiral, U. S. N. 208
Oil Engine Development, Future 705
Oscilloscope, The 549
Piston Seal in a Gas Engine, Holding 190
Preheater, Air, Howden-Ljungström, Tests of 568
Reduction Gearing, Marine, and Torsional Oscillations 154
Refractories Problem of the Navy, Solving the, by Gerald M. Galvin 146
Reviews, Book 212, 447, 599, 748
Richmond, U. S. S., Description and Official Trials, by C. W. Densmore, Commander, U. S. N. 451
Rudder, Novel, of Motorship Odenwald 551
Salinity Indicators, Concentration, for Measurement of Surface Condenser Leakage and Distilling Plant Operation, by C. A. Jones, Commander, U. S. N. 526
Seaplane, Martin-Navy All Metal 566
Semi-Diesel Engine, A New Double-Acting 201
Speed and Power Curves, Some Interesting 170
Steam at Extremely High Pressure, Use of 592
Steam Lines, High Temperature and High Pressure 582
Steam-Turbine Design, Recent Developments in 557

Steel Castings for Naval Ships, Notes on Inspection and Manufacture of, by Carlos Bean, Commander, U. S. N. 137
Steel, Effect of Temperature on Properties of 742
Steel, Electric, at High Temperature 741
Steel, Electric Cast, Tensile Test of 435
Stuffing Box, A New Type 174
Switchboard Instruments, Navy, by C. S. Gillette, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N. 603
Temperatures at which Physical Changes Occur 545
Torsional Oscillations and Marine Reduction Gearing 154
Turbines, Marine, Cleaning, Some Useful Notes on 401
Turbines, The Economical Steam Speed for 726
Vacuum, by O. L. Cox, Commander, U. S. N. 700
Van Auken, F. T., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., U. S. S Maryland, Description and Official Trials 1
Ventilation of Ships, with Special Consideration to Air Supply of Firerooms, by Ing. Julius Lévai, Translated and Rewritten by O. L. Cox, Commander, U. S. N. 114
Vroom, G. B., Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., Langley Chronograph 375
Williams, Henry, Captain (CC), U. S. N., Notes on Fouling of Ships' Bottoms and the Effect on Fuel Consumption 357
